Groups of Dancers Who Will Be in "Princess Snow White"

DWARFS

When the curtain of Brandeis theater rises on the play of "Princess Snow-White," which is to be given by over 100 young people under the direction of Miss Isabel Lowden for the benefit of the Child Saving Institute, the audience will forget that it is living in the twentieth century and in a real world, and will be transported to a fairy land of long ago.
Performances will be given Saturday afternoon and evening.

In this fairy play, the Princess Snow-White (Miss Eleanor Austin), is the most beautiful princess in the world. She is the object both of the search of Prince Charming (Edward Crofoot) and of the jealousy of the cruel queen (Miss Anna Bourke). The princess is protected against the queen's jealousy by a troupe of dainty wood fairies and seven jolly dwarfs, whose magic arts and tricks offset the plots of the queen's black and yellow imps.

The prince is accompanied in his search for the most beautiful princess in the world by a bodyguard of sturdy huntsmen, who remain true to their quest despite the treacherous temptations of dwarfs and other wood folk.

The group that stands out most conspicuously is that of the dwarfs, who are the comedians of the play.
Gordon MacAnlay is "Max," the oldest and most sedate of the seven. Lodovick Crofoot is "Hans," who is much disturbed over the advent of a girl in their quiet cottage. Louis Metz is "Jacob," a very practical dwarf. Harkness Kountze is "Jan," the easy-going member of the household. The other three dwarfs—"Adolf," "Dickie Stubbs," and "Levi," Junior Preston—are the lively ones.
"Fritz," Jasper Hall, is the cynic of the seven.

In the advertisement following "The Princess Snow-White" the most impressive number will no doubt be the Viking sketch, consisting of two scenes. In the first scene two chiefs, Lieutenant Watson and Thomas Mattern, Jr., contend for pos-

CLAIBORNE IS TO BE SUCCESSOR TO COCKRELL

Harry H. Claiborne, formerly journal clerk in the office of the clerk of the district court and for many years well known as a newspaper man in Omaha, probably will be appointed justice of the peace to succeed the late Justice George C. Cockrell by the Board of County Commissioners today.

Senator Millard Was Much Worse Friday

Joseph H. Millard, who has been confined to his home with a severe attack of tonsillitis and who was reported to be improved yesterday morning, has taken a turn for the worse and his condition yesterday was reported to be very poor.

NOONDAY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

At a meeting of the Noonday club at the Hotel Rome Thursday the annual election of officers was held. The following were elected: Albert W. Johnson, president; A. T. Benson, vice president; Fred E. Miller, secretary; Alfred Bloom, treasurer.

This is a club organized for social purposes. The report of the secretary showed there is now 116 members.

Brandeis Estate is Paid $20,000 on an Accident Policy

The estate of the late Emil Brandeis has received a check for $20,000 from the National Fidelity and Casualty company of Omaha. The check for $20,000 was signed by Edwin T. Swobe, vice president, April 23, and delivered to the executors of the estate. This was the first claim to be settled and was paid as soon as the brothers had given up ever seeing Emil Brandeis alive.

The claim was in payment of an accident insurance for $20,000, the policy calling for the payment of double the amount in case of death at sea.

MISSING MAN TURNS UP AT HIS BROTHER'S HOME

W. C. Yoder, who was missing for a day from his home, 236 Fowler avenue, returned to the home of his brother, William A. Yoder, in Florence, yesterday.
He had left his room in the Madison hotel, Twenty-first and Chicago streets, at 6:30 o'clock Thursday morning and went to the Yoder laundry on Cumberland street, of which he is one of the proprietors. It was noticed he was unusually dependent during the morning hours and there was fear, when it was learned he had disappeared, that he had ended his life.

Mrs. Yoder, the wife, is suffering from appendicitis and it was necessary to remove her to Wise Memorial hospital for an operation.

Permits to smoke, 5 cents. All dealers.

Honest Man Finds Ring Thrown Away by Robber's Victim

The $500 diamond thrown away by E. P.
Gamble several nights ago, when he thought he was about to be robbed, was returned to Albert Edholm, jeweler, Thursday noon by Edward Neff, an employee of the Parlin-Orendorff Plow company, residing at 2112 Davenport street.
Neff found the ring fifteen minutes after it was thrown away by Gamble.
He had to work late at the office that night and, as he was walking up Tenth street, near Farnham street, he noticed a shiny object lying on the sidewalk.
Thinking it a piece of glass he gave it a kick and discovered that it was a ring.
He took it home and showed it to his wife, but did not at the time think it was worth much, until seeing the ad in The Bee yesterday, he decided that he had found the lost gem and returned it to Jeweler Edholm. He was rewarded.

TODAY IS LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER FOR ELECTION

Voters who have not registered and therefore have no right to vote at the election, May 7, may take advantage of a last chance today. Registration boards will sit in the several precincts at the polling places from 8 in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening.

All who have not registered or having registered have moved must either appear at the voting booths and register or secure a transfer slip from the registration boards.
Those who were "sworn in" to give them the ballot at the primaries must register if they have become residents since last fall or if they have moved they must secure transfer slips.

It's like making your own price---

A thousand Omahans have secured values that will set them talking for years; pure white, first water diamonds have been bid in as low as $80 a karat; 15 jewel, gold filled watches bearing 20-year guarantees have been bid in at as low as $8—These are only a few instances—there are hundreds of other chances as good remaining at
